

Ellen Wiener
Vita

Ellen Wiener is a painter and printmaker. She holds degrees from Bennington College and Queens College CUNY, and has taught and lectured widely at the university level since 1985.

Because of her interest in books and book history, illuminations, theology and art history she has studied in non-degree programs at; Rhode Island School of Design, Princeton University, Stony Brook SUNY, The New School for Social Research in conjunction with The Morgan Library, SUNY Purchase, The Fine Arts Work Center, and The 92nd St Y in Manhattan.

Faculty positions include appointments at Princeton University, Stony Brook SUNY, Louisiana State University, Saint Mary's Honors College of Maryland, Sweet Briar College, Suffolk Community College, University of New Mexico, Queens College CUNY and Dartmouth College.

She has lectured on her work and ideas by invitation at; The International Medieval Congress, The American Antiquarian Society, Princeton University and Princeton Theological Seminary, Sweet Briar College, Brooklyn College Graduate School of Fine Arts, Washington University School of Fine Arts, The American University, Long Island University-CW Post, The Maryland Art Institute, Swarthmore College, The Hood Museum at Dartmouth College, The University of New Mexico Fine Arts Museum, The Heckscher Museum and many libraries.